Tour Descriptions:

- El Yunque Rainforest Hiking Excursion - Named after the good Indian spirit, Yuquiya, and shelter to the Carib Indians for 200 years, El Yunque is the only tropical rainforest in the U.S. National Forest System. Spanning 28,000 acres and reaching an elevation of 3,624 feet, the area receives over 100 billion gallons of rainfall each year. Rivers and trickling streams collect into gentle pools of rainwater as million of tiny inch-long frogs called coqui, found only in Puerto Rico sing their sweet lullabies.
- Biolumnescent Bay Kayaking - Do not let your trip end without exploring the best bioluminescent waters in the world. Our relaxing kayak tour at sunset will take you to the fascinating lagoon at Las Cabezas de San Juan. You will see the historical lighthouse of Fajardo, kayak through a mangrove forest, and also touch waters that glow with rare single-celled dinoflagellate organisms. Our professional tour guide will guide you throughout the entire tour. You will receive a life jacket, kayak, and a flashlight; Refreshments and towels will be provided.
- Bacardi Tour with Old San Juan Shopping - Visitors to Casa BACARDI will be guided through seven exquisitely designed and historically accurate rooms created to engage visitors as they experience the sight, smell and taste of BACARDI rum. Nosing booths invite visitors to take in the delicious smells of eight BACARDI rums. Learning of the secrets of the Bacardi rum making, including the secret strain of yeast isolated in 1862 and still used today. After our tour of the Bacardi facilities, we will depart for Old San Juan where guests will have an opportunity to go shopping for one-of-a-kind crafts at incredible prices, from wooden sculptures to handmade clothing.
- Zip Lining– Enjoy a memorable zip lining ride in a unique natural environment, one that you could not duplicate any place on earth. We combine a short kayak event, a bit of hiking, cave exploring and zip lining at Hacienda Campo Rico. Your final zip will end up at the Mojito Bar where you will be served a Puerto Rican style lunch.
